DEBTOR’S BRIEF IN OPPOSITION TO DARRELL MARHSALL’S MOTION FOR REVOCATION OF AUTOMATIC STAY

The Plaintiff requests “revocation” of the automatic stay as applied to his decades-long attempt to sue the City of Detroit (“City”). The City interprets this as a request for relief from stay and respectfully requests that it be denied.

The Plaintiff states that he has been diagnosed as “Paranoid schizophrenic delusional type, with a personality disorder.” Motion, ¶ 2. He fails to disclose, however, that the District Court dismissed his case over a decade ago for failure to “make out any legally cognizable action over which this court might have jurisdiction.” Ex. A, Dismissal Order.¹ “To prevent Mr. Marshall from further abusing the legal process,” the District Court also enjoined him from filing new lawsuits without court permission and ordered that he not be allowed to appeal in forma pauperis. Id.

The Dismissal Order did not stop the Plaintiff's efforts. He has filed and continues to file motion after motion with the District Court, each and every one of which has been denied to-date. Ex. B, Docket of Marshall v. Detroit City.² Plaintiff's numerous attempts to appeal his case have been equally unsuccessful. His most recent appeal attempt was dismissed for failure to pay the filing fee.³ Ex. C, Order from Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals. The Plaintiff asked the Sixth Circuit to reconsider en banc its dismissal of his appeal, but the court returned his request unfilled, stating that there is no provision for en banc review of an order dismissing a case for failure to pay the filing fee. Ex. D, Letter to Plaintiff.

Granting the Plaintiff relief from the automatic stay to allow him to continue to abuse the legal process benefits no one. The harm to the City of granting the Plaintiff relief dwarfs any possible harm the Plaintiff could claim to suffer from the stay. The City thus respectfully requests that the Court deny the Plaintiff's Motion.

² The exhibit shows the District Court docket as it stood as of December 15, 2013. A further and concise summary by the District Court of the state of affairs as of May 23, 2013, can be found in the District Court's order once again denying reinstatement of the Plaintiff's case. (Doc. No. 79, attached here as Ex. E).

³ Plaintiff had asked the Sixth Circuit to allow him to proceed in forma pauperis despite the Dismissal Order, but the Sixth Circuit denied the request "because this appeal would clearly be frivolous." Ex. F.

I. ARGUMENT

The Plaintiff offers no cause for granting him relief from the automatic stay. Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code states that a bankruptcy petition “operates as a stay, applicable to all entities, of . . . the commencement or continuation . . . of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title” 11 U.S.C. § 362(a). The automatic stay “stops all collection efforts, all harassment, and all foreclosure actions.” Javens v. City of Hazel Park (In re Javens), 107 F.3d 359, 363 (6th Cir. 1997) (quoting H.R. REP. NO. 95-595, at 340 (1978), reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5787, 6296).

A bankruptcy court may grant relief from the automatic stay in limited circumstances, including for “cause.” 11 U.S.C. § 362(d). “The Bankruptcy Code does not define ‘cause’ as used in [section] 362(d)(1). Therefore, under [section] 362(d), ‘courts must determine whether discretionary relief is appropriate on a case by case basis.’” Chrysler LLC v. Plastech Engineered Prods., Inc. (In re Plastech Engineered Prods., Inc.), 382 B.R. 90, 106 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2008) (quoting Laguna Assocs. L.P. v. Aetna Cas. & Sur. Co. (In re Laguna Assocs. L.P.), 30 F.3d 734, 737 (6th Cir. 1994)). Whether to grant relief from the automatic stay “resides within the sound discretion of the Bankruptcy Court.” Sandweiss Law Ctr., P.C. v.

Kozlowski (In re Bunting), No. 12-10472, 2013 WL 153309 at *17 (E.D. Mich. Jan. 15, 2013) (quoting In re Garzoni, 35 F. App'x 179, 181 (6th Cir. 2002)).

To guide the bankruptcy court's exercise of its discretion . . . the Sixth Circuit identifies five factors for the court to consider: (1) judicial economy; (2) trial readiness; (3) the resolution of the preliminary bankruptcy issues; (4) the creditor's chance of success on the merits; and (5) the cost of defense or other potential burden to the bankruptcy estate and the impact of the litigation on other creditors.

Bunting, 2013 WL 153309 at *17 (quoting Garzoni, 35 F. App'x at 181) (internal quotation marks omitted). In determining whether cause exists, however, "the bankruptcy court should base its decision on the hardships imposed on the parties with an eye towards the overall goals of the Bankruptcy Code." Plastech, 382 B.R. at 106 (quoting In re C & S Grain Co., 47 F.3d 233, 238 (7th Cir. 1995)).

These factors confirm that there is no cause for granting the Plaintiff relief from the automatic stay.

1. The interests of judicial economy weigh in favor of denying the Plaintiff's Motion, as evidenced by the long and fruitless docket endured by the District Court.
2. The Plaintiff's case has long been dismissed and no appeal is pending, so it is not trial ready.
3. There is no indication that the Plaintiff's case would resolve any bankruptcy issues.
4. The Plaintiff has lost motion after motion in the District Court, which has deemed him an abuser of the legal process. The Sixth Circuit has stated that his most recent appeal would have been frivolous, had it been allowed to proceed. These are strong indications that the Plaintiff has little chance of future success on the merits.

5. Given that both the District Court and Sixth Circuit have characterized the Plaintiff's case as frivolous and vexatious, any further burden to the City is unwarranted.

In short, the District Court has determined that there is no merit to the Plaintiff's complaint, and the Sixth Circuit has stated that there appears to be little point to an appeal. The Plaintiff offers no rationale to suggest that these determinations are erroneous and no cause for why he should be allowed relief from the automatic stay to continue his efforts. Accordingly, the Sixth Circuit factors virtually mandate that the Plaintiff be denied relief from the automatic stay.

II. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the City respectfully requests that this Court: (a) deny the Plaintiff's Motion; and (b) grant such other and further relief to the City as the Court may deem proper.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

DARRELL L. MARSHALL,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Case No. 00-CV-74576
HON. GEORGE CARAM STEEH

CITY OF DETROIT, and
WAYNE COUNTY,

Defendants.

FILED
2000 NOV 21 P 2:18
U.S. DIST. COURT CLERK
EAST DIST. MICHIGAN
DETROIT

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF IN FORMA PAUPERIS
STATUS AND DISMISSING CASE PURSUANT TO
28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i) AND ENJOINING PLAINTIFF
FROM FILING FURTHER LAWSUITS WITHOUT LEAVE OF COURT

Plaintiff Darrell L. Marshall, proceeding pro se, has filed suit against the City of Detroit and Wayne County. Based upon the information in the Application to Proceed in Forma Pauperis, the court grants plaintiff in forma pauperis status pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. For the reasons that follow, however, the court dismisses plaintiff's complaint as frivolous pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i).

Plaintiff has filed a number of cases in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan based upon an incident which occurred in 1984, whereby plaintiff was allegedly assaulted by City of Detroit police officers and hospitalized at Detroit Receiving Hospital as a result of his injuries. Plaintiff was diagnosed by the hospital as paranoid schizophrenic and committed to Northville State Hospital on a court order. Plaintiff contends that prior to the assault, he was receiving mental health treatment for a variety of disorders, and was receiving Social Security Supplemental Income based on an anxiety disorder. In his current lawsuit, plaintiff maintains that because the Wayne County Probate Court knew of his pre-existing psychological diagnosis, it was aware that Detroit Receiving Hospital and the City of Detroit had committed acts of fraud to cover-up the head injury plaintiff received by the Detroit Police. Plaintiff does not allege sufficient facts to make out any legally cognizable action over which this court might have jurisdiction. The court, therefore, finds that plaintiff's claims are frivolous because they lack an arguable basis in law or fact. It is hereby ORDERED that plaintiff's complaint is DISMISSED pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i).

Previous lawsuits have been brought by plaintiff against Michigan Rehabilitation Services, the United States Government, the City of Detroit, Detroit Receiving Hospital, the individual police officers, the Wayne County Probate Court, among others.¹ Each of the lawsuits relate to the same underlying incident. This court must protect its jurisdiction from vexatious litigants abusing the judicial process. See, In re Martin-Trigona, 737 F.2d 1254, 1261 (2d Cir. 1984). The Sixth Circuit has specifically approved a district court's power to limit the filing of lawsuits by vexatious litigants. See, Filipas v. Lemans, 835 F.2d 1145 (6th Cir. 1987). The court upheld a district court's order requiring the plaintiffs to receive leave of complaint from the court prior to filing any further lawsuits. Id. at 1146.

To prevent Mr. Marshall from further abusing the legal process, Mr. Marshall is hereby PRECLUDED AND RESTRAINED from filing any new actions in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan without initially obtaining leave of this court. This required action is hereby DEEMED a condition precedent to the commencement of any further civil action by him.

To obtain leave, Mr. Marshall MUST initially comply with all of the following requirements:

1. He must file a "Motion Pursuant to Court Order Seeking Leave to File" with ¹See, e.g., Case Nos. 88-72503 (J. Hackett); 99-76129 (J. Cohn); 00-60069 (J. Steeh); 00-71283 (J. Hood).

any proposed complaint;

2. As an exhibit to that motion, he must attach a declaration prepared pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 or a sworn affidavit certifying that the claim he wishes to present is a new issue which has never been raised by him in court;

3. By means of a second exhibit, he must identify and list the full caption of each and every suit which has been previously filed by him or on his behalf in any court against each and every defendant in the suit that he wishes to file;

4. As a third exhibit, he must provide a copy of each such complaint and a certified record of its disposition. He must serve a copy of this order on each defendant if and when leave to serve is granted.

5. As a fourth exhibit, he must append this order.

Failure to comply with these terms may itself be grounds for denying any motion for leave to file a complaint. Compliance with these terms does not, of itself, constitute grounds for granting leave to file a complaint.

Based on the preceding order, this court certifies that any appeal from this decision would be frivolous, not in good faith and, therefore, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3), may not be taken in forma pauperis.

So ordered.

PETITION FOR REHEARING EN BANC

Now comes, petitioner Darrell L. Marshall and petition the entire court for rehearing, based on the following facts.

1. There are corruption, racial discrimination, and bias against individuals with disabilities in the United States District Court Eastern District of Michigan and the clerk's office of the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals.
2. The order of United States District Judge, George C. Steeh, the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the clerk's office of the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals ruling the Civil Rights Complaint frivolous with no legal basis is an act of corruption, racial discrimination, and bias against individuals with disabilities based on the fact that appellant have submitted a preponderance of material facts that will prove, medical and legal fraud, conspiracy and violation of United States Constitutional Rights.

3. The State of Michigan and the Detroit Medical Center continue to deny and delay medical diagnosis and treatment.
4. On November 27, 2013 appellant filed a complaint with the City of Detroit Police Department, Internal Affairs. Detroit Police Officers are enticing a female friend to falsify sex charges against appellant.
5. IN THE MATTER OF: CITY OF DETROIT, CHAPTER 13 BANKRUPTCY
CASE NO: 13-53846, U.S. BANKRUPTCY JUDGE, STEVEN RHODES, appellant request revocation of stay of proceedings in this case, Darrell L.
Marshall VS. City of Detroit and Wayne County, District Court No:
00-CV-74576, Appeals Court No; 13-1755, based on the fact that,
State laws under the Emergency Manager Act violates the United States CONSTITUTION FIRST AMENDMENT RIGHT TO PETITION THE GOVERNMENT FOR A
REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES , IN CIVIL RIGHTS CASES, and the City of Detroit has violated the automatic stay of proceedings by attempting to frame appellant on sex crime charges.

6. Appellant apologize to everyone that was affected by the crime appellant committed at the United States District Courthouse in Detroit Michigan on, December 27, 1989. Appellant committed the crime against the United States Government to try and get medical treatment.
7. On April 24, 1984 appellant was brutally assaulted by Detroit Police and sustained a traumatic brain injury and post traumatic stress. Appellant was arrested taken to jail then transferred from jail to Detroit's Medical Center, Detroit Receiving Hospital. On April 24, 1984 Detroit Receiving Hospital was owned by the City of Detroit. The City of Detroit, Detroit Receiving Hospital, and the Wayne County Probate Court have conspired and concealed the fact that appellant have suffered a traumatic brain injury and post traumatic stress for at least, thirty years.
- The City of Detroit, Detroit Receiving Hospital, Wayne County Probate Court, and the State of Michigan applied the fraudulent medical diagnosis, (Paranoid schizophrenic delusional type), with a personality disorder to cover-up the traumatic brain injury and post traumatic stress.
8. Appellant have been in fear for my life and in fear of incarceration for the pass thirty years because of the unlawful acts committed against appellant by the defendants.

Dear Mr. Marshall,

DARRELL L. MARSHALL,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 00-CV-74576

vs.

HON. GEORGE CARAM STEEH

CITY OF DETROIT, and
WAYNE COUNTY,

Defendants.

ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF'S MOTIONS TO REINSTATE CASE [DOC. 76 AND 78]

Plaintiff, Darrell Marshall, brings the present motions to reinstate based on "fraud upon the court" and his desire to remove two "related cases from state court." Plaintiff's lawsuit arose out of an incident which occurred in 1984, whereby plaintiff was allegedly assaulted by City of Detroit police officers and hospitalized at Detroit Receiving Hospital. While at the hospital, plaintiff was diagnosed as paranoid schizophrenic. Plaintiff accused defendants of using the diagnosis to cover-up head injuries he received in the beating by Detroit police. This court previously dismissed plaintiff's case as frivolous and enjoined him from filing further lawsuits without leave of court. (See, Order dated November 21, 2000). The Court subsequently denied a motion to reinstate plaintiff's case based on newly discovered evidence. This ruling was upheld by the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals two times, first in an Order dated May 29, 2002, and then in a second Order dated June 2, 2006. The Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals addressed plaintiff's case a third time when it denied his petition for a writ of mandamus by which he sought an order disqualifying this judge and reinstating his civil rights action. (Order dated March 20, 2007).

Plaintiff now seeks reinstatement of this case, permission to file a new case, and removal of two state cases based on an alleged conspiracy to conceal medical and psychological injuries suffered by plaintiff at the hands of the City of Detroit, Detroit Police Officers, the State of Michigan, this court and numerous other entities. While plaintiff acknowledges this court's previous order enjoining him from filing further lawsuits without leave of court, he does not comply with the requirements of that order. In addition, this court's order dated June 19, 2003, which was upheld by the Sixth Circuit, provides that any further motions for reinstatement of this civil action will be stricken as moot. Now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that plaintiff's motions for reinstatement, to file an independent action, and for removal are DENIED.

ORDER

FILED

Oct 21, 2013

DEBORAH S. HUNT, Clerk

Darrell L. Marshall appeals pro se from a district court order that denied his motion to reinstate a previously dismissed action that he had filed under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The district court has denied him permission to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal. Marshall now moves the court pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 24(a)(5) to grant him permission to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal.

We will grant the motion if we are persuaded that the appeal is being taken in good faith.
See Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 445 (1962).

Upon review, the motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis is hereby denied because this appeal would clearly be frivolous. See Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 325 (1989). Marshall is directed to pay the $455 appellate filing fee in full to the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan within thirty days of the filing date of this order, or else this appeal will be dismissed for lack of prosecution.
